THE NEWS DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

We desire to have the NEWS largely circulated during the Presidential campaign. The larger our subscription list the more effectually will we be enabled to work, and to this end we trust our friends and patrons will exert themselves somewhat in adding to our present list. The nation will in November declare for GREELY and BROWN, and it is essential that North Carolina should place herself squarely on this liberal movement—for such a consummation will we earnestly labor.

In order to place the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS within the reach of all, we will send them for a period of four months at the following rates:

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A lot of new books has just been received at Branson's. See his notice.

Churchill, of the National, is preparing for the reception of the visiting Fire Companies.

Twenty five marriage licenses were issued in this county last month—9 white and 16 colored.

The Raleigh and Gaston Road will run special trans to the State Fair, at 2 cents per mile each way.

Likely twelve months' old babies sell in the market at $1,100, and is said by an old resident to be cheap at that.

Tom Moore Whiskey, declared to be the best in the market, sold only at Miller & Nelson's, under the Market. †

Fine Norfolk and Lynhaven Bay oysters served daily at the counter of Miller and Nelson's, under the Market. †

A goodly number of visitors are in town, many of them in attendance upon the meeting of the Stockholders and Directers of the Raleigh and Gaston Road.

We learn from Policemen on duty yesterday morning, that between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock a slight fall of snow occurred, enough to cover the brims of their hats.

The protracted meeting at both the Baptist and Methodist Churches are increasing in interest. Larger crowds were in attendance Monday night than at any time heretofore.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad in this city to day. There will be an adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the same road to-morrow.

The evening edition of the Sentinel yesterday said it is reported that Richard Bobbitt, of Warren, died last week quite suddenly. His nearest neighbors knew nothing of his death yesterday morning.

Election blanks are now being sent out from the office of the Secretary of State to the several counties, for the Presidential election in November. The law requires them to go out thirty days prior to the election.

TRUCK FARMING.—Geo. W. Atkinson, Esq., living nine miles south of this city, furnishes our city market with pure white cabbages, weighing from 6½ to 10 lbs., a specimen of which he left at our office yesterday, decidedly the finest we have seen this season. Mr. Atkinson informs us that trucking does not conflict with his other farming, and finds it very profitable. The fine specimen left at our office was raised from Landreth's late flat Dutch seed.

WHERE ARE THEY?—The Secretary of State has received from the counties in the State only 46 official returns of the August election. Semi-official returns have been received, but the law requires these returns to be sealed and addressed to the Speaker of the House, and they are not opened until the assembling of the Legislature. It is time the county officials were arousing from their Rip Van Winkle condition.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF CITY COMMISSIONERS.—An adjourned meeting of the Board of City Commissioners was held in the Mayor's office Monday evening.

The Mayor being absent on account of sickness, Commissioner Prairie presided.

Present, Commissioners Gorman, Battle, Dunston, Johnson, Ellison, Upchurch and Churchill.

The petitions of James Bryan and W. H. Lyon, for liquor licenses, were granted.

The petition of A. W. Fraps, for restaurant licenses, was granted.

A resolution was offered by Commissioner Gorman, and unanimously adopted, as follows: That the sum of $300 be appropriated out of the City Treasury to the Hook and Ladder and Rescue Steam Fire Companies of this city for incidental expenses.

The petition for a well on Salisbury street, north of Edenton street, was granted.

Commissioner Gorman, chairman of the Committee on Oakwood Cemetary, Submmitted a report recommending that the city take twenty shares in the Association—adopted.

The city was ordered to sell $2,000 worth of the city three year bonds at not less than par.

On motion of Commissioner Battle, it was resolved not to reduce the number of street bonds the present month.

On motion of Commissioner Johnson it was ordered that whenever a squad of street hands were less than ten in number, the overseer in charge would work himself.

The street committee were requested to consider the practicability of opening a street connecting Wilmington street with Smithfield road, and also to confer with the crossing of Johnson street.

A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Stronach, Ellison and Johnson, was appointed to make necessary arrangements to light up the streets during Fair week with gas or something cheaper.

The quarterly election of police officers was then ordered and the old officers were re-elected with the following additional names: Robert Hall and Thomas Manly, both colored.

The city Treasurer, M. W. Churchill, submitted his report, as follows:

Amount received from Revenue and other sources,	$36,007 00
Amount paid out as per vouchers,	3,600 00
Bal. on hand in Treasury.	$32,407 00

On motion, Board adjourned.

THE DEATH OF DR. J. BRINTON SMITH.—A general gloom pervaded the city yesterday morning upon the announcement of the sudden death of the Rev. Dr. J. Brinton Smith, President of St. Augustine College of this city.

Dr. Smith arose at his usual hour, about 5½ o'clock yesterday morning, and after performing his usual duties about the house and yard, walked out to his farm, but a short distance from his residence. Meeting his overseer, he gave him some special instructions in regard to the day's work, and returned to his residence for breakfast. Before going to the table, he remarked that he was a little unwell and thought a seidletz powder would help him. His daughter at once prepared the powder. He drank it, and went in to breakfast. After eating his breakfast, he returned to the farm, and while conversing with Mr. Sewell, the overseer, he experienced (as he expressed it) a peculiar sensation, and at once returned to the house. Arriving at the house, he said to his family, "I am dying—and feel that I am poisoned;" five minutes afterwards and he was a corpse. Dr. E. Burke Haywood was immediately sent for, but of course too late to be of any service.

Owing to the suddenness of the death of Dr. Smith, a jury was summoned by the Coroner, and an inquest was held over the body. After an investigation of several hours, in which the remains of the seidletz powders in the glass were examined, &c., the jury adjourned till this morning at 10 o'clock, when a post mortem examination will be made

In the death of Dr. Smith, Raleigh has sustained an irretrievable loss. He was a Northern man by birth and education, came to this State since the war, founded the St. Augustine College, for the education of colored men for the Episcopal ministry, was a public spirited, enterprising citizen, and did more than any one man to promote immigration of Northern men to our State. In the absence of Dr. Mason he frequently filled the pulpit of (Grace) Episcopal Church, in this city, and was much beloved by the congregation. His death is universally regretted, and his family has the warmest sympathies of the community.

We propose in to-morrow's issue to give details of the life, character and death of this good and eminent christian.

RAN AWAY.—A pair of horses attached to a carriage ran away from the central depot yesterday morning, resulting in a general smash up of the vehicle, but not injuring the lady passenger in the carriage. The carriage was one of those that ply between the hotels and other points, and are hired by the month for that purpose.

This should be a warning to the travelling public, and a reminder that the omnibuses, especially those under the charge of our enterprising young friend Brown, are the safest transportation.

THE HENDERSON FAIR.—This Fair will commence on Tuesday next, and we are pleased to learn that an unusual interest is being manifested in it this year. An elegant two story building has recently been erected fronting the race track, with an amphitheatre in front. Special trains will be run both from this place and Weldon, at two cents per mile each way for persons attending. Of course Raleigh will be well represented.

THE ASSISTANT MARSHALS OF THE STATE FAIR. The following gentlemen have been selected, and consented to serve, as the Marshals for the State Fair, to commence in this city on the 15th inst.:

Chief Mashal—Col. W. K. Davis, of Franklin.

Assistants—Capt. Arthur Barnes, Wilson; J. C. Battle, Nash; W. A. B. Branch, Beaufort; A. H. Boyden, Jr., Rowan; Plummer Batchelor, Wake; J. L. Bridgers, Jr., Edgecombe; Dr. W. R. Capeheart, Chowan; Maj. J. M. Crenshaw, Wake; Joshua Cooper, Granville; Dr. C. F. Dowd, Wake; I. J. Dortch, Wayne; Plummer Davis, Franklin; T. P. Devereux, Wake; Samuel Flemming, McDowell; A. W. Graham, Orange; M. J. Hawkins, Warren; T. B. Hyman, Wayne; Ferdinand Harris, Halifax; W. W. Jones, Wake; R. W. Joyner, Pitt; A. D. Jenkins, Gaston; Guilford Kidder, New Hanover; M. T. Leach, Wake; T. F. Lee, Wake; E. H. Merrimon, Buncombe; A. G. Moore, Alamance; R. M. Pierson, Jr., Yadkin; P. F. Pescud, Jr., Wake; S. C. Pool, Wake; A. H. Ricks, Nash; Col. J. M. Staples, Guilford; Geo. Tate, Mecklenburg; Jno. A. Williams, Cumberland; W. A. Whitaker, Wake; R. B. Young, Granville; Wm. Glenn, Yadkin.

Col. Davis has displayed good judgment in making his selections, and has chosen gentlemen of excellent business judgment and of easy manners, which will add no little to the success of the Fair. The Marshals are requested to report here on Monday, the 14th.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The "opening" day of Mrs. Andrews & Amis, the Fashionable Fayetteville street Milliners, is set apart for Friday the 4th inst. The excellent taste displayed by these ladies in their former selections is well known to every lady of Raleigh, but this season they have eclipsed all former purchases. They have purchased a much larger stock this fall than usual and spent much time at the headquarters of fashion in New York city. We tell the ladies that if they don't want to be behind in the world of fashion to wait for the opening of Mrs. Andrews & Amis. Country merchants and milliners will read their announcement in another column.

R. B. Andrews & Co., Clothiers, &c., announce the opening of their Fall and Winter stock of Clothing. The name of Andrews, the clothier, is too well known in North Carolina to require comment or praise from us. What Andrews' says may be sworn to. His stock is unusually large and attractive, and all he asks is a trial.

Especial attention is called to the advertisement of De Bret's great exhibition of Magic and his "Cabinet of Wonders." The press of the various cities through which he has passed, speaks of his performances as truly wonderful, and lead, us to believe that in magic he is equal to Signor Blitz or Wyman. His first exhibition will take place this evening at Tucker Hall. Go and see him.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—

C. B. Harrison, Esq., left for Louisiana yesterday.

A. W. Graham, of Hillsboro, was in the city yesterday.

Gen. Abbott, left yesterday for Charlotte. Watch him, Bro. Jones.

Dr. Thomas C. Pugh, formerly of Hamilton, N. C., but now of Baltimore, is in the city.

Dr. W. P. Young, of Oxford, will soon to move to Waco, Texas. He will carry with him the well wishes of his many friends.

Sam'l P. Arrington, Junior member of the large Commission firm of John Arrington & Sons, Petersburg, Va., is registered at the Yarborough.

Col. Walter Clark, of Halifax, is registered at the Yarboro. He is in attendance upon the meeting of the Board of Directors of the R. & G. R. R. to-day.

T. B. Evans, Esq., Junior Editor of the Hillsboro Recorder, passed through the city last evening, en route to his home from the East. So he says, but we believe he made a special trip in search of his overcoat—which was delivered to him, pipe, stem, medicine and all.

J. H. Horner, Esq., Principal of the Oxford Male Academy, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Horner has the reputation of being one of the first teachers in the State, and we are pleased to learn that his school numbers some 70 scholars this session.

A DIABOLICAL MURDER OF A CHILD.—We learn of a most diabolical murder of a child by its step-father in the Scotland Neck section, Halifax county, on Saturday last. A negro man named Thomas Dabney, some 30 years of age, and employed upon the farm of Col. Walter Clark, was the husband of a woman who had a daughter some twelve months of age, the child of a former husband. On Saturday morning the man endeavored to make the child stop crying, and not succeeding in this, he seized the child and dashed its head against the floor, injuring it so severely as to cause its death in a short while. His wife witnessed the act, but was powerless to prevent its committal.

The murderer was arrested and lodged in Halifax jail on Monday. The murder occasioned a strong feeling with the negroes against the perpetrator, and he was closely guarded until the officers of the law took hold of him.

APPOINTED.—We are gratified to learn that J. F. Jordan, Esq., of this city, has been appointed special Agent of the Security and Annuity Life Insurance Company, of New York, of which Maj. R. G. Hay is the General Agent for the State. No better selection could have been made than Mr. Jordan, as he is well known to the people of the State as a thorough business man in every particular.

AN EARNEST APPEAL.—The following communication, furnished us for publication, needs no comment at our hands, as its earnest language should go straight to the sympathies of every reader:

"When God to shield from cold and storm,
Gave trees to build, and fires to warm,
He did not mark for each his part,
But gave to each a human heart."

Winter—yea, cold, cold winter, with its blasts and tempests, storms, and shadow of sunshine shine, is rapidly aproaching. Have you, kind reader, made every requisite preparation to meet the transition from October's Indian summer to the bleak chilling winds of November? Have you filled your garners with stores, reaped a plentiful harvest from the fruits of the earth and eased your soul of anxious thought for the morrow, by filling your mind with pleasant reflections of eating, drinking and merry-making? Have you filled your woodyards for winter fires, stacked your hay for horned cattle and well bred horses—yea, have you laid by your supplies without separating the tithes that rightfully belong to God's poor? If so, let me recall to your mind the impartial duty of providing for the poor at this season. The poor, say you—who are they? Does not the rain and dew fall alike on all. Yes, I answer, on all that inherit a portion of God's property. Then why should any man be poor? Simply because selfishness predominates and we are unwilling to share our portion of earth where wealth lies buried, with our brother. In this autumnal return when Fairs are held to exhibit the talent, the character, energy and perseverance of leading citizens in several States, has any step been taken towards gathering and directing a fund for the poor? Is there in the borders of our own State one philanthropist ready to sympathize, by soothing their griefs and sharing their portion of the world's goods allotted them, blessing and being blessed by the widow and orphan, while increasing the cruise of oil in the dwellings of poverty! If so then let him emerge from obscurity, secure the fame and importance he justly merits, and Carolina's sons and daughters will delight in showing the many advantages derived from promoting the happiness of the poor, Christ's poor, through which we are blessed. Who can visit and attend daily to the interests of his fellow creatures in distress, without feeling [illegible]bled, even when a high stand is sec[illegible] the estimation of his neighbors, and the affection of friends gives him a clearer conscience from having discharged this duty with his means of benevolence. That man must indeed be hard hearted who can lie down at night resting upon his downy pillow, without having lightened the heart of the widow, whose tallow candle burned to the socket, and last chunk of fire was carefully turned over with a wearied arm that had drawn stitch by stitch to procure the morrow's bread for her fatherless children. Can any man, any citizen of North Carolina, say "they have done all they could" to lighten the widow's burden and provide for the orphan since the Fair of 1871? If he can, hand his name down to future generations for a household word with the fairest of creation, making him the theme of song, the hero of verse and admired of all admirers. Let this exalted virtue place him upon a pinnacle where beauty of person, animation, eloquence and fascinating manners that interest the heart with accomplishments dazzling the mind, have failed to attain

I do not, Mr. Editor, consider myself authorized but permitted as a citizen to make a suggestion to the presiding officers of our numerous Fairs. I make it, though inclined to believe the suggestion would have had a more decided effect emanating from those in authority, if their attention was not distracted by the labors of industry and developing talent to crown the summit of their glory. Our worthy friend, the editor of the Biblical Recorder, some months ago lighted a taper that has ceased to burn, for want of oil to feed the flame. His magnanimity suggested an asylum for the orphans of Carolina, and as yet no provision has been made in response to his "Why Not" for the helpless and despairing, ere the frosted heel and benumbed fingers draw streaming tears from the melting eye of these poor unfortunates. He must have had a sublime vision to view in the future such quiet, peaceful feelings as the happy consciousness in discharging that duty, would have given if faithfully performed, and echoing, I ask, "Why Not" at our Fairs, place the necessity of this work more directly before the people of our "good old State" for their consideration and attention, with liberality and endowment. Why will not one of our philanthropic citizens immortalize his name and shed a lustre on his State by arousing the citizens to action in diffusing his sentiments and inspiring them by burning words of eloquence, in appeals to their hearts for the Orphan's Home, from which the most beneficial results may be anticipated.—"Why Not" for this special object erect a stand at our State Fair with one of Carolina's fair daughters presiding, and then and there let every visitor have the amount of their sympathy recorded with their name. And "Why not" try to expand the Masons' hearts "like a flower to sunshine" to unite their best affections in this common cause, until the massive doors of St. John's College are unbarred and the orphans' voices make the walls resound in chanting notes of praise to their Creator, and praying for blessings to be poured out upon the heads of those who provided for the good of succeeding generations, leading them gently to the Lamb and bringing them to the Living Waters whereby a home may be secured in Heaven. S. A. E.

Oxford, N. C. Sept. 27th, 1872.

MEETING OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE UNIVERSITY.—As will be seen in our advertising columns, Gov. Caldwell, as President of the Trustees of the University, has called a meeting of the same to convene at the Executive office, on the 17th October. This is a matter of no little importance, and it is to be hoped that a full and prompt attendance will characterize the meeting.

WE ARE pleased to learn that the Representatives elect from Buncombe county, Messrs. T. D. Johnson and David Blackwell, are doing active service. We have no doubt that Buncombe will be favorably heard from on the 5th of November.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. TUTT'S SARSAPARILLA & QUEEN'S DELIGHT.—No remedy possesses so many valuable Medicinal Properties as this Combination of Roots, Herbs and Barks. The Queen's Delight is acknowledged by physicians to be the most powerful remedy known for Impure Blood, Liver Complaints, Nervousness, Female Complaints, Constipation, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Kidneys, Syphilitic Affections, Skin Diseases, Chronic Complaints, &c. But in this preparation it is combined with other vegetable products, which render its virtues doubly valuable. Most diseases have their origin in the blood, and as a Blood Purifier the Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight has no equal. It requires but a trial to convince the most sceptical.

For Female Complaints, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills are an acknowledged remedy.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye is the Best in the World

KEEP THE HAIR UNBLEMISHED.—"I am like an old hemlock—withered at the top," said a venerable Indian Chief, pointing to his thin and bleaching locks. Thousands of men and women in civilized society, much younger than the old Saganore, are like him, "withered at the top," simply because they have neglected to use the means of preserving and beautifying the hair which science has placed at their disposal. If LYON'S KATHAIRON be faithfully applied once or twice a day, to the fibers and the scalp, it is just as impossible that the hair should decay, wither, fall out or become harsh and fuzzy, as that a meadow, duly refreshed with nightly dews and sunlit rains, should become arid and barren of green blades. This matchless preparation not only keeps the hair alive and the skin of the head in a healthy and clean condition, but actually multiplies the filaments and imparts to them a lustre, flexibility and wavy beauty unattainable by any other mode of treatment. It does not, like the metallic and sulphurous hair dyes, dry up the natural moisture of the scalp, but supplies nutriment to the roots of the hair and vigor to the fibers.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.—$500 reward for an incurable case. Sold by druggists, or by mail, 60 cents. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

A GLORIOUS RECORD.—Twelve years ago a few modest lines in a New York Journal invited public attention to a new Vegetable Restorative, and solicited a trial of its merits as a remedy for indigestion, biliousness, fever and ague, debility, nervous disorders, rheumatism, and all complaints requiring invigorating and regulating treatment. In this quiet, unpretentious way, PLANTATION BITTERS was introduced to the world. It was a success from the beginning. All that was claimed for it as a tonic, a corrective and antidote to malarious fever, was found to be strictly true. Within five years the annual sales of this article amounted to over One Million of Bottles. A few years more and the demand had swelled to five millions. The annual consumption of the bitters has now reached the almost incredible aggregate of six millions of bottles, and for every bottle sold a copy of the "Illustrated Medical Annual," published by the proprietors, at a cost of $150,000, is given away.

☞ KOSKOO.—This celebrated Medicine has attained a high reputation, as a reliable remedy for Purifying the Blood, Restoring the Liver and Kidneys to a healthy action, and "Toning up" the Nervous System. Its numerous and remarkable cures of the worst forms of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Liver complaint, Kidney Disease, Eruptions of the Skin, Nervous Prostration, &c., has caused it to become a standard remedy. It is now prescribed by physicians, and recommended by our best citizens.

RISLEY'S BUCHU is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and genital organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Haviland, Harral & Risley, and their branches, is now prepared by H. W. Risley, the originator and Proprietor; and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

HORACE GREELEY'S CLOSING SPEECH.

Mr. Greeley's closing speech, upon his return from his late Western tour, was quite brief. He concluded it by saying: "I do not mean to be tortured into saying another word to the end of the canvass. I have explained myself as fully as seems necessary, and I trust that the good work may go on."

GOV. CURTIN.

This distinguished gentleman had a brilliant reception in Philadelphia on Saturday. He made a long speech, echoing Horace Greeley in almost every respect, and declaring emphatically for Buckalew. He made no positive declaration regarding national politics beyond denouncing centralization and theft.

OREGON has elected Mitchell, Republican, to the U. S. Senate. He succeeds Corbett.

IF THE County Executive Committees will do their duty, North Carolina will give a large majority for Greeley.

A GAIN of three votes in each Township will overcome Caldwell's reported majority.

THE TRIANGULAR CANVASS IN TENNESSEE.

The present campaign for Congressman at Large in Tennessee is a singular and exciting one.

The regular nominee of the Liberals and Democrats is Gen. B. F. Cheatham, one of the most distinguished Confederate officers. He was regularly chosen as the standard bearer by the State Convention of the party. Immediately after his nomination, Andy Johnson popped up, and declared himself an independent Greeley candidate.

Horace Maynard, who is at present a Representative in Congress, is the regular Radical nominee.

The consequence is, we have three candidates in the field, and they are all stumping the State together.

Of course, both Gen. Cheatham and ex-President Johnson are championing the claims of Greeley for the Presidency, and Maynard's only hope for an election is to so divide the anti-Radical vote in the State as to step into Congress through the dissensions in the ranks of his opponent.

Johnson is considered a very strong man among the masses—but the "questionable shape" in which he comes before them is calculated to impair their confidence and weaken his influence. At this stage of the canvass it is impossible to say what chances Johnson stands of creating a split in the party. In a regular contest, Tennessee would give the Democratic and Liberal nominee from forty to sixty thousand majority.

There are two Greeley tickets in the field, and this will lead to some embarrassment and trouble with our party in that State. We are in hopes, however, the difficulties will be reconciled before November, and that only one set of electors will be voted for by our friends.

It will be a great calamity, if through the dissensions in our party, a State like Tennessee, where we have an overwhelming majority, should be lost to our cause.

Gen. Cheatham is a worthy and popular gentleman, and as the nominee of the party, should receive its unanimous support.

PARDONED OUT TO TESTIFY.

The Radicals in Pennsylvania are in a terrible straight.

Their candidate for Governor, Hartranft, is accused of all manner of crimes and corruption. He belongs to what is known as the Cameron Ring, and it was by the personal efforts and influence of Senator Cameron, he secured the nomination, with Berger, Jno C Gorman, Perry, Stewart Ellison & Warren, Geo H K[illegible] was enabled to challenge Rep[illegible] nomination.

Large numbers of Republicans have repudiated the nomination and have declared open hostility to the nominee. These refractory Radicals are led by John W. Forney, editor of the Philadelphia Press, one of the leading Republican organs of the country. Forney has been excoriating Hartranft, and exposing his connection with thieves and swindlers. His hot shot has thrown the Radical party in Pennsylvania into a great state of confusion and demoralization.

It has now been found out—but alas! too late—that Hartranft's nomination was a fatal blunder.

In order to disprove the truth of the charges againts Hartranft, a fellow by the name of Yerkes has been pardoned out of the Penitentiary by the Governor of Pennsylvania to testify in behalf of Hartranft. Yerkes was tried, convicted and sent to the State prison on the charge of embezzling the city funds of Philadelphia. He was at one time a partner of Hartranft. As soon as he is pardoned out of the Penitentiary he makes affidavit that certain charges of corruption against Hartranft are not true.

What will the people think of a political party that is compelled to resort to the Penitentiary, to procure evidence to vindicate the character of their candidate for Governor?

The fact that a convict has been pardoned in order that he might testify for Hartranft is good evidence of the latter's corruption.

THE NORFOLK FAIR.

We are pleased to learn that the officers of the Virginia and North Carolina Agricultural Society are making extensive preparations for the first exhibition of that Society, which is to be held near Norfolk, commencing on the 22nd inst., and that they have the most flattering prospects. Eastern and Central North Carolina is closely allied to Norfolk, and we have no doubt will contribute largely to this exhibition.

The Japanese girl students in Washington have been studying too hard, and one has been so persistent in her applications as to contract a serious disease of the eye, which threatens her with total blindness. Indeed the difficulty is so serious that the Japanese Minister has informed the unfortunate child that she will have to return to Japan, and another student sent in her place. The name of the sufferer is Rio Yosheni s, and she is not only the eldest of the party, but particularly bright in intellect, and noted for her many amiable qualities. When the final decision was made known to her that she must return to Japan she acquiesced without a word of complaint; but her companions were greatly distressed, and manifested their sorrow in the most touching manner.

Speaking of Father Hyacinthe's marriage, the Avenir National says: "We are in a position to affirm that Mrs. Meriman, the widow to whom he has united, possesses a fortune of $75,000."

GRATZ BROWN IN INDIANA.

We have already alluded to the fact that Gov. Brown, of Missouri, has been making able and telling speeches in Indiana. We have before us his speech made at Logansport, Ind., on the 27th ult., which is one of the most able addresses we have read in this campaign; we cannot refrain from laying the following extracts therefrom before our readers. The speaker, after reviewing the carpet-bag rule in the South, and the villainous way in which the negroes were compelled to vote by the carpet-baggers, said:

"But enough of this. My object has been to bring before you simple facts, facts sworn to, facts reported to the Congress of the nation, from which you can form an intelligent judgment for yourselves in regard to the whole matter. It thus appears that the troubles of the whole Southern country came of bad government; from the close of the war up to 1867 affairs there were perfectly quiet, with no occurrence of violence; that the attempt to band the colored population together in secret leagues against the white population engendered bitterness and barbarities where kindliness had before reigned; that public opinion reasserted itself there, and put an end to counter organization under the Ku Klux regime before the United States authorities intervened, and that while the Ku Klux have disappeared, the carpet-baggers still wage their infamous war on all society with impunity. In this connection it is a matter deserving grave consideration that public opinion should still have had power, in all save a few contracted localities, to quell such a development of the worst elements of society. If the Ku Klux Klan was, as many assert, a great conspiracy against all law and order, extending over nine great States and 700,000 square miles of territory, is not its sudden suppression in them all, if you choose to except a few counties in North Carolina, strikingly illustrative of the fact that there is a public sentiment there which may be relied on to uphold the ends of good government if justly dealt with, and invoked in the name of love, not hatred? Does it not demonstrate that the ultimate peace of the country can repose on such social thought, while it never can on the animosity of race? And, on the other hand, does it not prove even more conclusively still that the existing administration there, under the manipulation of the carpet-baggers and the pupilage of the President and his party, does not rest on any foundation in public opinion that can restore just laws or public virtue? With all the corruptions emanating from it at the south, when has it ever in like manner aroused itself and bid them end? With States in the very agony of spoliation; with every morality set at defiance, bribery, venality [illegible] department [illegible] ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

WILL [illegible] robbery, officeering all [illegible]s; with a control of the [illegible] vote, as is claimed, what expression do we hear from such a constituency solicitous to impose purity and dethrone rascality? Does its following give any promise of a reform, or any sign of capacity to rid them of the evils under which they are wasting away? The Ku Klux are dissolved—gone back into the darkness of alienation and animosity—but the secret league of the carpet-baggers—moulding the colored race into a caste organization, ply their hateful work and plunder, plunder, plunder! What hope have you from an educational system thus teaching three millions of black men to hate the white man? What faith have you in that idea of government which values it only as an instrument to rob capital, to assail property, to confiscate all ownership through taxation? What expectation have you that the putrid pool of corruption which slime and swirl round offices there will turn to wholesome, living waters? I do not say one word that shall invite repulsion and hostility to the freedmen of the South. Their deliverance has been our work, their ignorance and incapicities are results of slavery, their natures have many aimable traits and easy confidences; but I do desire to urge in the strongest language the men of the North to come forward now and aid in delivering them from a bondage which threatens, in the hands where it has fallen, to be more desolating to them than any endured heretofore. This gospel of hate which is being inculcated will annihilate them if persisted in. This control is incurating a war of races, and the deliverance must come from you who have shown such sympathy in the past. Your passions are appealed to by florid orators of press and platform, who stage it before you in the cast off garments of Ku Kluxism, reciting barbarisms it is credited with; but they tell you nothing of its real cause. Far less do they portray that social force, impotent to correct its own headlong career—that pestilence of fraud and vice which must be stamped out if contagion is to stop."

Alluding to the immense funds that were now being used for campaign purposes, the speaker said:

"You know what is doing to day in Indiana, and that you have never before seen demoralization put on such arrogant airs and boast so openly of its power to subdue your expression by corrupting the franchise. And are our politics to be thus converted into one seething mass of corruption, that shall annul elections, debauch legislative bodies, bribe justice, blackmail all who are touched by the government, yet with no protest going up from the people of the land? Do you call that republicanism or democracy, or any form of popular government? Does it comport with any continued prosperity to the country? Is it not anarchy of all moral restraint, verging towards despotism, anarchy of all law, inviting mobocracy, anarchy of all electoral rights, tantamount to a plebiscitum under the Empire?"

The next annual meeting of the Virginia Division of the Army of Northern Virginia will take place in Richmond, Va., on the 31st inst. Gen. Jno. B. Gordon, of Georgia, will address them on the occasion. All persons who honorably served in the Army of Northern Virginia are entitled to become members.

A fire occurred in Norfolk, Va., on Saturday night, on Union street, destroying the stables of Mr. Strong and one or two other houses adjoining. The loss was quite heavy.

Billiard playing is prohibited by law in Pernambuco, South America.

THE WAGES OF SIN.—The New York papers are full of the sad story of Maude Virginia Carlton, of New Orleans, sent by wealthy and respectable parents to school in 1862, at Xavier's Academy, Chicago, under the care of the Sisters of Mercy. She went in 1862, at the age of twelve years, and after her schooling was over, her parents being dead, married, became the widow of a suicide, went to New York, led a fast life, became an ill-treated kept mistress, and finally died at Bayonne, N. J., of consumption and neglect, her paramour taking the rings off her dead fingers to a pawnbroker. "The wages of sin is death."

Latest advices received from different quarters of Virginia show that the canvass for Greeley and Brown is warming up in this State. Clubs are being formed in every direction, and the spirit of the people is all that could be desired. After the 1st of October the political campaign will be enlivened by the efforts of all the leading speakers of the State, among whom we may mention Judge Ould, Judge Crump, Lieutenant Governor Marye, Colonel Baldwin, Colonel Gilman, Mr. Bocock, and others of like ability.

The letter of Governor Curtin breaks the back of Cameronism and corruption in Pennsylvania, and so in the nation. It is received by the people with the same ardor and enthusiasm which marks the progress of Horace Greeley through the West. These are the only sentiments to which the popular mind is now responsive. The call is an audible one everywhere for reform, and the right men, like Greeley, Buckalew, and Curtin, are demanded as leaders in a cause whose ultimate triumph is certain.

The young man Charles Loughlin, who was shot by a constable in Norfolk, Va., on the 15th ult., and was supposed to have been recovering, died at a hospital in that city on Sunday morning. The constable has been arrested and lodged in jail.

The fire in Norfolk, Va., Sunday morning, destroyed some $26,000 worth of property, upon which there was only some $3,600 insurance. The fire did its work on Union street, but threatened at one time to burn through to Main street.

The St. John's Commandery of Knights Templar, of Wilmington, Del., will visit Richmond, Va., on the 15th inst.

A large fire is raging in the Dismal Swamp, three or four miles below Suffolk, on the line of the Norfolk and Petersburg and Seaboard railroads.

Among the Virginians in Europe, Miss Mary Lee, daughter of the late Gen. Robert E. Lee, is reported at Venice.

WEDNESDAY.....OCTOBER 2, 1872.

STATE MATTERS.

THE Salisbury Fair commences on the 7th inst.

SHELBY sells a great deal of cotton with the market at 14 cents.

CLEAVELAND Superior court commences next Monday, the 7th inst.

SHELBY has a vineyard that will turn out this season 400 gallons wine.

MAJOR J. M. BLAIR has taken charge of the Elliott House at Statesville.

THE Synod of North Carolina is to meet in Charlotte on the 9th inst.

WILMINGTON ate up last week 72 beeves, 6 hogs, 35 sheep and 4 calves.

THE streets of Charlotte are daily crowded with wagons loaded with cotton.

THE Newbern Journal of Commerce has been changed from a tri-weekly paper.

THERE are one hundred and twenty-five students in attendance at Trinity College this year.

THE old jail of Charlotte is said to be an intolerable nuisance and a disgrace to the town.

MCDIARMID, of the Lumberton Robesonian, is travelling agent for the Wilmington Life Insurance Company.

THE streets of Statesville on Sunday evenings are deserted, says the Intelligencer—the citizens go chinquepen hunting.

THERE have been 40 conversions at the revival which has been progressing at the Tryon Street M. E. Church in Charlotte.

EGGS are worth 25 or 30 cents per dozen in the Wilmington market. Sweet potatoes are worth $1 a $1.20 per bushel in the same market.

THE Observer chronicles the gratifying fact that the town of Rockingham is improving, and its progress is onward and upward. Several new building are in prosess of erection.

THE Intelligencer says that Statesville has a colored Jenny Lind, who fasts from Saturday noon until Monday morning, in order that her voice may be clear on Sunday.

THE Editors of the Rockingham Observer and Wilmington Star have communicated with each other by telegraph—celebrating the events of the telegraphic wires reaching the former place.

THE Wilmington Star says that passengers on the train which was recently wrecked on the W. & W. R. R. speak in the highest terms of the conduct of the ladies under the trying circumstances of the ocasion.

WILKES Court has been in session for two weeks. A negro named George Graham, charged with the murder of the woman Margaret Seaman, in Iredell county some months since, was convicted of murder in the second degree.

THE Charlotte Southern Home says: "We have been promised an account of the outrages committed by the whiskey-smellers in Gaston. We learn that they burnt several distilleries and destroyed boilers by punching holes in them."

MR. HENRY WILLIAMS was arrested at Wright's Ferry, in Mecklenburg county, on the 21st ult., by a Ku Klux Marshal from South Carolina. The Southern Home says, "tell Governor Caldwell."

B. S. GUION, Esq., of Lincoln county, will secure on 60 acres of land, about 30,000 pounds of leaf tobacco—10,000 of superior bright, and 20,000 pounds common. Better than cotton planting, says the Charlotte Democrat.

THE Southern Home, alluding to Prof. W. C. Kerr, says: "This distinguished man of science has returned from an extended geological survey in the West. The Old North State may well be proud of her son, who has taken the front rank among the scientific men of the South."

JULIUS A. BONITZ, the enterprising editor of the Goldsboro Messenger, left yesterday on a northern tour of recreation. Mr. Bonitz, with his Messenger, did good work in the late campaign, and needs a brief respite from his labors. We wish him a good time.

THE Murfreesboro correspondence of the Norfolk Journal says that Drs. Lewter and Lawrence have on exhibition at their drug store an ear of corn displaying a wonful lusus naturæ. The last of the ear next to the stalk measures 9½ inches in circumference, and is as perfect in shape as any ear. One and a half inches from the but it separates, forming two perfect ears, each 8 inches long and 7 inches in circumference. This specimen of one in two grew under one husk, and was raised by Mr. Mills Lawrence of our county.

THE editor of the Hickory Tavern Eagle, in noticing the departure of a citizen of that section for Missouri, advises North Carolinians to stay at home, and gives this as his experience in the West:

"Last Spring the writer traveled over the principal and attractive parts of the 'great North West,' and came back home disgusted, and satisfied to remain in North Carolina. Long and severe winters, snow all the time and everywhere, cold, piercing, incessant winds, storms, hurricanes, earthquakes, water spouts, and other things equally as disagreeable and hazardous, characterize that section.

THE Warrenton Gazette of Saturday gives the following statistical statement concerning Warren county: "Ridgeway shipped during the year ending June 1st, 1872, 199 hogsheads tobacco, 704 bags cotton, 1271 bushels corn, and 19 bushels wheat, and received 178 tons guano, and 56,098 lbs. bacon. Macon 491 bags cotton, 188 hogsheads tobacco, and received 77,512 lbs. 121 tons guano, and 249 barrels flour. Littleton 53 tons guano 25 hogsheads tobacco, 472 bags cotton, and 13,416 lbs. bacon. In the Littleton estimate only the amount shipped from and received into this county is given. Warren Plains, Manson and Henderson will be given next week, if we can get the statement, which will give an accurate report of the exports and imports of Warren county."

STATESVILLE has but one young man who parts his hair in the middle.

SOUND oysters are quoted in the Wilmington market 20 cents per quart. We suppose, of course, those that are tainted sell for less.

THE fall trade is opening well in Fayetteville. Cotton has been coming in town quite freely, and the naval store trade is brisk.

A DIFFICULTY between two negroes near Fayetteville last Friday resulted in one of the combatants receiving a ball in his leg. The other party escaped.

THE Newbern jail was set on fire by a lunatic confined therein Saturday night last, and but for a timely alarm would not only have destroyed the building but all the prisoners in it.

COL. S. L. FREMONT, Engineer and Superintendent of the W. C. & R. R. R., advertises for a hotel keeper and mechanics of different branches of trade for Laurensburg, a new town on the line of the above road.

J. M. JUSTICE, Grant elector, rung the court house bell twice at Polk court last week intending to make a speech, but as his eloquence could not move empty benches, the martyred hero (?) quit the field in disgust.

LOCAL items are scarce in Newbern. For the information of the natives in and around that section "ye local" of the Times discusses "Hydrogenism," and winds up a half column article by informing his readers that it is the solid form of Hydrogen.

Affairs in Raleigh and in the State.

A correspondent of the Norfolk Journal, under date of the 26th ult., thus speaks of North Carolina affairs:

Politics are dull in Raleigh just now; and, indeed, they are not the rage anywhere in the State at present. More's the pity; for all the Democrats and Liberals require to carry the State overwhelmingly for Greeley is to arouse and muster their undoubted majority. The Radicals are evidently much encouraged by the apparent apathy of the opposition, but I am convinced it is but apparent, and that the Radical hope out of it is altogether delusive. The party of reform are naturally disappointed by the recent result in the State election for Governor, but knowing the fraud of it, and that it cannot be repeated in November to the same extent, they are not disheartened but are only resting on their arms. Still it is no time for rest of any sort, and it is to be deplored that the reveille has not been loudly and widely sounded long ago. But Pennsylvania will soon joyously awake them, no doubt.

You will have seen from their delectable State press, that the Radicals are much exercised and amusingly uneasy on the election frauds question, alternately trying blarney and bluster to cajole or bully the defrauded candidates and the people out of any contest before the Legislature. They propose to Judge Merrimon to vote for him for the United States Senate if he will not contest, and per contra to barricade the capitol and bayonet him and everybody else if he does contest successfully. This at least is the Bombastes Furioso strain of the Era, which has elicited some mild depredation from the more discreet, but otherwise just as willing, pistols of the Radical press. But neither blandishments nor blunderbusses will serve their purposes should an able prima facie case appear of record from the preliminary investigation now, and for sometime steadily proceeding under the able direction of General D. M. Barringer, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee. With that first result the question of the true prince will undoubtedly be thoroughly tried by the Legislature and decided without fear or favor. I am not at all liberty to say how the enquiry stands at present, but my opinion is, the contest will be hard, and that it will result in some just confusion to the present heirs apparent.

The Senatorial question will be another distinguishing feature of interest in the session. I cannot foreshadow which of the several distinguished and deserving Democrats aspiring will be the choice, but it is enough to know, certainly, that one of them will redeem, for the next six years, the disgraced seat of John Tarquin Pool. The only hope of that patriot now—and forever more—is in the re-election of his master at Long Branch, and a resulting foreign appointment for himself. But as it is not likely the State is to be purged of him upon this first condition, the good people of North Carolina (mark the distinction) must await, I fear, his epitaph to be glad. And so a hopeful end of politics.

As a stranger in Raleigh I am much struck and pleased with both the people and the place, so much so, indeed, that I am resolved to buy a place out on Hillsboro street, and settle here—provided a "party to the other part" may be found of such exquisite and charming simplicity in finance as to transact a credit of that extent, with a well-meaning but tax exempt correspondent to the Democratic press. But I am not so sanguine of success in this quest—which some distrustful property holdess would mildly call Quixotic—as to stand in any danger of mental aberration and suicide in case of a disappointment.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to NORTH CAROLINIANS. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premiums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

"IDLE WILD"

FOR SALE

—AT—

AUCTION!

That Splendid property, on Newbern avenue, in the city of Raleigh, known as

"IDLEWILD,"

(The former residence of the late John Cotton), is offered for sale.

The dwelling is the largest and most perfect private residence in the city, containing fifteen rooms, as follows: One 32x22; five 22x22; seven 20x20; two 15x12, and two large halls; a passage way 18 feet by 10. The house is two stories, with dressed rock basement, upper and lower porches with large columns on each side. All the necessary out-houses, stables, carriage house, &c., &c., are on the premises.

The lot contains about three acres including a large garden with the most magnificent oak grove surrounding the residence to be found in the State; a most beautiful and sloping lawn of ample depth and width fronts the dwelling. This property is the most desirable in the city—situated on an elevation of some fifty feet above the Capitol; the healthiest and most attractive and growing part of the city; the grounds, fences, residence and out-buildings are in the most perfect order—not one dollar is required to be spent on same.

The above valuable property will be offered for sale at the Court House door in Raleigh, on Wednesday, October 16th, at 12 o'clock. Terms easy.

N. B.—This property has been highly recommended for a Boys' Civil or Military School; an institution of both kinds sadly needed at this point.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE

COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

WEDNESDAY.....OCTOBER 2, 1872.

THE PRESIDENT'S PUP.

Granty had a little pup,
He kept him for a show,
And every place that Granty went
The pup was sure to go.

Chorus—

Sicom, fy, chingery bum,
Nosi, sicom, fatie,
Rumble, tumble, jumble, bumble,
Singing Yankee Doodle.

Whenever at Long Branch he stopped
The pup was by his side;
And when the colt he took to drive
The pup was sure to ride.

Chorus.

Granty's time is near at end,
And the little pup will see
He cannot be a President's pup
In eighteen seventy-three.

Chorus.

The little present game is up,
The people tell him that,
In place of him and his bull-pup,
We want the old White Hat.

Chorus.

Granty's grave it now is made,
And buried the pup will be,
And we will have for President
Good Uncle Horace G.

Chorus.

UNION SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE.

AGENTS WANTED

In every county in North and South Carolina. Unparralleled inducements offered to Agents, larger commissions being paid than is done by any other Company.

This Machine is particularly adapted to those persons who are unable to purchase one of higher priced Machines, the prices ranging from $25 to $55. The UNION SHUTTLE is the only low-priced Lock-Stitch Machine that has any claim of merit in it. It stands without a rival for its durability, strength and firmness of finish, making, at a low price, a Sewing Machine equal to the highest priced ones, and, in some respects, superior to them all.
